IBEST Emphasis in Multiple Subject Credential (50 units)

This option enables the student to complete most of their Liberal Studies courses during their Freshman, Sophomore and Junior years and their credential coursework during their final years as an undergraduate. The degree satisfies all University requirements. This track requires students to have an undergraduate GPA of 2.75 and gain successful admission to the Multiple Subject Credential Program prior to enrollment in stage one and state two credential courses. The multiple subject credential program requires a 3.00 GPA in all credential coursework. Students would complete the Core Curriculum, in addition to the following:

Traditional Emphasis (12 units)

This option is suited for students who do not wish to pursue a teaching credential during their baccalaureate years or who do not meet the 2.75 GPA requirement for IBEST or ISPED. They must complete the core curriculum and the following:

Minor or Concentration (12 units) A minor or concentration is required, selected from one of the following two options:

- A minor consisting of at least 12 semester units within a minor program designed by another discipline.
- 2. A concentration developed with a Liberal Studies advisor.

English Subject Matter Equivalency Emphasis (9 units)

This option is suited for students who will be pursuing a multiple subject teaching credential after graduation but would like to add an introductory subject matter authorization in English (allowing them to teach 6-9th grade English). Students completing the Subject Matter Authorization Program in English must complete the core curriculum and all of the following courses:

- 1. Any 3 unit English Elective
- 2. Any 3 unit English Elective
- 3. Any 3 unit English Elective

Unless a course other than EDSP 3268 People with Disabilities and American Education has been met to meet the Junior Year Diversity Requirement, EDSP 3268 People with Disabilities and American Education should be taken instead of EDSP 4270 Establishing Foundations of Special Education.

Please see a Liberal Studies Advisor for selection of courses.
