This course introduces students to basic features of financial accounting systems with emphasis on the accounting cycle and the preparation of financial statements for both corporations and sole proprietorships.

Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

This course introduces students to basic features of internal reporting systems with an emphasis on decision making. Following a review of the financial accounting cycle, budgeting for planning and control will be stressed with emphasis on cash management, working capital management, inventory management, product costing, cost volume profit analysis, and cost allocation.

Prerequisite(s): Prerequisite: ACCT 2200

This course provides an intensive study of basic financial accounting theory, financial statements, the accounting cycle, working capital accounts, and operational assets. It also extensively covers revenue recognition concepts.

Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

This course is the continuation of the study of financial accounting theory from Intermediate Accounting I. Specific topics covered includes long-term liabilities, stockholders’ equity, accounting changes, error analysis, cash flow and accounting for income taxes, leases and pension costs.

Prerequisite(s): Prerequisite: ACCT 3000 or 300

This course provides an intensive study of basic financial accounting theory, financial statements, the accounting cycle, working capital accounts, and operational assets. It also extensively covers revenue recognition concepts.

Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

This course addresses advanced topics in accounting and will include coverage of a number of the following topics: special problems of accounting for business combinations, reorganizations, bankruptcies, partnerships, governmental and nonprofit organizations, trusts and estates, and international accounting. It will include discussion of the current issues related to the global harmonization of accounting standards (International Financial Reporting Standards) and the impact on the accounting profession.

Prerequisite(s): Prerequisite: ACCT 3010

This course covers the fundamentals of auditing theory and practice, ethical standards, auditing standards, auditing techniques, and the audit report; special emphasis is placed on independent audits by CPAs and the role of CPAs in society.

Prerequisite(s): Prerequisites: ACCT 3010 and ACCT 3600. May be repeated for credit up to a maximum of 20 units.

Repeatable for Credit: Yes, up to 20 units

Typically Offered: Fall, Spring
ACCT 4350 Business Law II (3)
This second course in business law expands application of legal principles that affect commercial transactions and further develops the basic framework for analyzing the legal dimensions of business practices and operations. Topics include: employment and labor law issues; consumer law; antitrust law; insurance law; wills and trusts; mortgages; secured transactions; suretyship; debtor-creditor relationships; bankruptcy law; federal securities regulations; criminal law; negotiable instruments; international law; environmental law; computers and the law; and professional liability and accountability. Prerequisite: ACCT 2350.
Requisite(s): Prerequisite: ACCT 2350 or 275

ACCT 4500 Accounting Ethics (3)
This course will focus on the unique issues and obligations of professional accountants. We will begin this study with a discussion of why accounting ethics matters and why students should study ethics at this point in their academic career. Further, students will examine what it means to be a professional accountant and will discuss what virtues accountants must possess to best serve the public interest. Students will study the language of ethics and will be able to distinguish between principles and rules. High profile cases will be used to demonstrate the failings of the profession and individual accountants. An in-depth study of ethical standards for the various professional accounting organizations at the national and state levels will enable students to understand the ethical framework from which they will operate as professional accountants. Prerequisites: ACCT 3010.
Requisite(s): Prerequisite: ACCT 3010

ACCT 4600 Fraud Examination (3)
This course is an introduction to fraud examination and begins with an introduction to what is fraud, what are the different types of fraud, and who commits fraud. This course will help students to develop awareness of fraud in organizations, help students to develop techniques for preventing, detecting, and measuring fraud and help student to develop skills necessary to help in the resolution of frauds. Prerequisites: ACCT 3010.
Requisite(s): Prerequisite: ACCT 3010
